

The Move into Life Project Group

8th and 9th September – Performances

12 people have chosen to work together throughout the year – each on their own movement-based project. The group have been supporting one another to bring their projects to fruition. The ‘harvest’ is now ready and we would like to share these 5 performances with you.

Please join us in the audience for any of these performances. They are free of charge – and tea and coffee are provided after the Tuesday performances.
